About LLMA

The Leslie-Lohman Museum of Art (LLMA) is the only art museum in the world dedicated to artistic exploration through multi-faceted queer perspectives. With a collection that includes over 25,000 objects spanning three centuries of queer art, LLMA embraces the power of the arts to inspire, explore, and foster understanding of the rich diversity of LGBTQIA+ experiences.

Based in Soho, NYC since 1969, Leslie-Lohman Museum of Art is a vibrant platform for artistic exploration through multi-faceted LGBTQIA+ perspectives – serving as a home for queer art, artists, scholars, activists, and allies, and a catalyst for discourse on art and queerness.

Now in its sixth decade of operations, LLMA is committed to catalyzing culture change, providing sanctuary, and the daily imperative of affirming and manifesting queer creativity through annual exhibitions, public programs, educational initiatives including school residencies, artist fellowships, and a journal, the Museum has fore fronted the interrelationship of art and social justice for LGBTQIA+ communities in New York City and around the world. At this historic inflection point, the Museum’s originating core of creating a communal exhibition space for underrepresented art and artists remains unchanged, however, the actualization of this core has evolved alongside the intensely evolving societal landscape.

Today, LLMA embraces our transforming world, putting into action a better world for LGBTQIA+ people—with artists leading the way.
